minutes of 1962-1963

September 18, 1962

The S. E. A. held its first meeting on September 18 in room 46. Everyone was greeted by Mr. Cliburn, the sponsor of S. E. A. The secretary read minutes of the last meeting held last year which was in May. The S. E. A. of this year didn't have a president and Vice President so everyone agreed to wait and have a nominating committee to select them. Glenda Sue Gary was selected to be on this nominating committee. Mr. Cliburn, in general, talked about the S. E. A. It was agreed that the dues stay as they were; Local dues $1.50; State dues $1.00; and national dues $1.00. Mr. Cliburn brought information concerning the S. E. A. and distributed it among the members. The meeting was then adjourned by Mr. Cliburn.

September 26, 1962

A special meeting was held on September 26, 1962 in room 46 to select the President, Vice, president, and social and publicity chairmans of the S. E. A. They were the following: Henry Wilson - President; Martha Johnson,

Vice-President; Betty Carr, Social chairman; and Ann Hunter as publicity chairman. Secretary was selected as head of membership committee. Mr. Cliburn discussed membership and dues of the S. E. A. He also mentioned going to various high schools to present programs concerning the S. E. A. American Education week was also discussed.

October 30, 1962

The S. E. A. met on October 30, 1962 in room 46. President, Henry Wilson, called the meeting to order, the secretary read the minutes, and Nancy Turner was in charge of the program which was on elementary education. Those having parts on the program were: Nancy Turner, Janice Johnson, Glenda Sue Gary, Sheila Peagler, Roger Linds, and Montrea Moore.

Mr. Cliburn talked and welcomed new S. E. A. members and welcomed Liberal arts majors to become members. Mr. Cliburn brought three different S. E. A. magazines for students who paid state and national dues. The S. E. A. Convention ~~is~~ in March in Jackson was also discussed. It was mentioned again that we go to different high schools & present programs concerning SEA. It was suggested that the Social Committee be planning a party for near future. The meeting was then adjourned by President Henry Wilson.

February 26, 1963

The SEA met on February 26, 1963 in room 46. In the absence of our President, Martha Johnson, called the meeting to order. News and minutes were read. New and old business was discussed. Mr. Cliburn brought the SEA Charter and was discussed. Martha Johnson was in charge of the program which was on integration. After the program students participated in discussion concerning integration giving their opinions on the subject. The state convention which was March 15 in Jackson was discussed. Motion was made to provide necessary funds for those who went. Anyone who wished to go as delegates were welcomed to go. Means of travel was discussed. The meeting was then adjourned by our Vice.

President, Martha Johnson.

May 7, 1963

a special meeting was held by the officers on May 7, 1963 in Mr. Cliburn's office. President, Henry Wilson, called the meeting to order. The purpose for meeting was to nominate officers for next year. (1963-64). Mr. Cliburn suggested a call meeting on May 14 after assembly to elect the officers nominated. Nominations for President, Secretary & Treasurer were ~~nominated~~ ^{selected}. The rest of the officers would be elected at the beginning of next year. Martha Johnson was nominated for President and Harold Aycock was nominated for Sec. & Treas. Mr. Cliburn mentioned that the S.E.A. should have more meetings the following year. The meeting was then adjourned by the President, Henry Wilson.

October 22, 1963
On October 22, 1963, Linda Ewing, vice-president called the S.E.A. meeting to order. The minutes were read by John Davis, standing in for Harold Aycock, and were approved. Mr. Culum then made the following announcements: finish S.E.A. membership drive, printing of state of officers from all over state of Mississippi at M.S.C.W. the weekend of November 1-2. Officers and committee chairman were encouraged to attend. The program was turned over to Timothy Hille. His program was concerned with three main topics: Code of Ethics, Prayer in schools, and the State MEA proposals. Linda Epting, Danny Walters, Roy Thompson and Jolene Lewis presented these points to the group.

Roger Hines was not present to present his part on Prayer in schools, so it was suggested by Mr. Cliburn that his part be carried over to the next meeting. Timothy decided that the next program at the next meeting would consist of a discussion among SEA members about Prayer in our schools.

After the program had been presented, Mr. Cliburn made several comments on teachers' salaries. The meeting was then adjourned.

Reports were given from those who attended the Leadership ~~for~~^{camp} Workshop at Garayua Oct. 9 and 10. Those reporting were Jean Hatcher, Sue Baucum, Eugene Pennington.

President elaborated on the Project 18. She brought out that we had over a hundred Education majors.

Mr. Cliburn told of the chapter's previous activities in the organization of various F.T.A. Clubs in the surrounding schools.

Mr. Cliburn made a motion that we continue this program. It was seconded by Jean Hatcher and put to a vote.

The President displayed the new scrapbook which was purchased at the Baptist Bookstore in Jackson.

There were twenty three present. The meeting was adjourned.

Respectfully submitted,
Sue Baucum

Oct. 27, 1964

The President called the meeting to order. The secretary read the minutes of the last meeting. The roll was called with 22 members present.

The President complimented and thanked those who helped decorate the two A.E.D. cars that participated in the Homecoming Parade.

There was discussion of the organization of F.T.D. chapters in surrounding schools. Requests for volunteers to talk to high school principals were made.

Those members wishing to have ATEA pins, see Betty McKinnon for ordering them.

Pictures made at Camp Garaway were shown to the group.

Mr. Cliburn elaborated on the Outstanding Classroom Teacher of the Year. He had presented the idea to Dr. Montgomery. It was then presented to the Faculty Club, which approved it. It was agreed to let the ATEA help in its presentation.

Mr. Cliburn also informed the group that there was a strong possibility that an award for the Outstanding Secondary education major would be available this year.

He pointed out that in order to be recognized in the State Convention our club needs to increase its membership.

The program was introduced by Ray Thompson, program chairman. Those participating were Evelyn Walters, Duane Harris, Linda Epting, Betty McKinnon, and Jean Hatcher. The program was entitled "The Code of Ethics of the Education Profession."

A motion was made by Evelyn Walters that we adopt the code of ethics as set up by the NEA.

Linda Epting seconded it.

The President appointed those who had served on program to be on a committee to decide if any revisions needed to be made. Ray Thompson was chairman of this committee.

Any news items for the Newsletter should be turned in to Reba Jo Davidson.

The meeting was adjourned by the President.

November 17, 1964

The ECQC chapter of the S.E.A. was called to order by President Smith. The secretary read the minutes and called the roll, with 20 members present.

The membership chairman, Jean Hatcher, reported that there were 34 members in the club.

The program chairman Ray Thompson requested that there be a meeting of all S.E.A. officers and chairman of the committees to plan programs.

The Project 18 chairman Betty McKinnon presented her appointed committees.

Martha Williams gave a report on the trip a group of students made to Hickory to organize a F.I.A. chapter there. Those participating were Betty McKinnon, Marie Caraway, Martha Williams, and Sue Baucum.

Requests were made for students who could go into the surrounding schools to organize F.I.A. chapters. Sue Baucum agreed to go Newton; Ray Thompson and Janice Bricker to Marion; Shirley Brown and Gary Knight to Union; Nancy Johnson and Wanda Deal to Tuscola Central; Peta Jo Davison to Philadelphia; Rita Gilmore to ~~Forest~~ Sebastopol; Dianne Dennis to Lake; and Betty McKinnon to Trust. As the program Sue Baucum gan presented the constitution of the S.E.A.

Mr. Cliburn suggested that a few additions be made to fit our needs. These were that the qualifications for the outstanding education student should include participation in the club and grades; he also suggested that the student be chosen by vote of the club.

A motion was made by Betty McKinnon to appoint a committee to revise the state constitution for the club. Gary Knight seconded it.

Sue Baucum was appointed chairman of the committee.

Mr. Cliburn brought up a suggestion that we have a joint social with the Clark College S.E.A. students some time. The club agreed.

The meeting was adjourned by the President.

Respectfully submitted,
Sue Baucum

January 26, 1965

The ECJC Chapter of the S.E.A. was called to order by Mr. Cliburn. The minutes were not read by the secretary because the meeting was only for twenty minutes.

Mr. Cliburn did some briefing on certain points concerning the S.E.A. Chapter. The president was willing for him to talk to the members. He discussed the cost of a person's education and why so many people who become teachers leave Mississippi.

There were a few things facing the S.E.A. Chapter, such as 1. The Code of Ethics

2. A constitution
There are people who are assigned jobs concerning these points which were brought out above.

The meeting was adjourned by Mr. Cliburn. There were 20 members present at this meeting.

Respectfully Submitted,
Jean Batcher

November 8, 1966

A special meeting was called by Mr. Clburn to discuss our project for Education week.

The meeting was called to order by president, Sarah Kelly, and turned over to Mr. Clburn. Mr. Clburn introduced a special guest from University of Mississippi, Mr. Wooten. He spoke to us on the many educational opportunities that we have today. He also discussed the financial aids available to education majors.

Sarah then discussed our project of giving each teacher an apple and a flower to wear one day during National Education week. The various committee members were put in charge of distributing the apples and flowers. A motion was then made that we purchase our flowers from the local florist. A motion was then made and seconded that we use the five dollars we won with our entry in the homecoming parade in this project.

A thank-you note was then read from Mr. Shelby Harris, Chairman of the homecoming parade, for our participation in the parade. The meeting was then adjourned.

November 14, 1967

The meeting was called to order by the president Robert Smith. The monthly magazines were passed out to each member.

Mr. Cliburn then presented reports on the various projects completed by the club. They included the ~~CCW~~ in the parade and the Education week. He also revealed that our club had a 24% increase in membership since last year. He made congratulations to the club on the fine work that had completed.

The announcement was made that our president Robert Smith will serve on the State Advisory Board for this year.

It was announced that our club would have the opportunity to have charge of the assembly program on either of the dates (January 23, Feb., or March 26). We decided on the date of March 26.

At the close of all of the various business matters mentioned above, Dr. Charles Wright spoke to us on the subject of "What It Means to Serve."

The ringing of the bell brought the meeting to a close.

The first meeting of the East Central SEA Chapter was presided over by President Danny Whittington.

Mr. Cliburn gave a short welcome to the group of about 40 students. He also explained something about the history of the SEA on East Central's campus.

The secretary, Linda Lathem, was introduced by the president. She named her Membership Committee. They are as follows:

Audrey Boggan,
Wayne Lasher,
Babs Laine,
Patsy Nester.

The remainder of the officers were elected; they are as follows:

Vice-president - John Sharp
Project - Chairman - Sandra Clark
Publicity Chairman - Sandy Smith
Social Chairman - Elaine Madison

A motion was made and seconded that we should set our membership goal at 70 members. Another motion was made that we should get people to donate blood for Charlotte Moody who is to have open-heart surgery. Both motions received unanimous approval.

February 1969

In the absence of the president, Danny Whittington (who graduated at the end of first semester, John Sharp, vice-president, called the meeting to order. John turned the program over to Mr. Cliburn, who distributed some pamphlets of interest to the students. A suggestion was made concerning an addition to the code of ethics to the effect that a teacher's position is to be respected and is not to be undermined in the least.

John then called on Linda Lathem, chairman of the nominating committee, for a report on the candidates for secretary and for President. Katha Kennedy was nominated for secretary, Wanda May moved that she be accepted by acclamation. The move was seconded and she was unanimously accepted. Glenda McMullan and Diane Holder were nominated for president. Glenda won a majority.

Katha Kennedy was elected as a delegate to the delegate assembly of the MEA convention. Serving as delegates to the convention will be Sandy Smith, Elaine Madison, and Linda Lathem. Alternate delegates will be Danny Whittington, Glenda McMullan, and Katha Kennedy. These delegates were approved by the club.

The meeting was adjourned by the vice-president.
